

SCHOOL SPEECH LANGUAGE PATHOLOGY ASSISTANT

We are seeking a dedicated and self-starting Speech-Language Pathology Assistant (SLPA) to join our team in a school-based setting. The SLPA will work under the supervision of a licensed Speech-Language Pathologist (SLP) to support students' communication needs, implement therapy plans, and collaborate with educators and families to promote student success.

Responsibilities:

- Provide speech and language therapy services to students under the supervision of a licensed SLP.
- Develop and implement engaging lesson plans aligned with student goals.
- Support student progress by collecting data and maintaining accurate documentation.
- Collaborate with teachers, special education teams, and parents to support classroom communication strategies.
- Prepare therapy materials and adapt activities to meet diverse student needs.
- Assist in creating a positive and inclusive learning environment.
- Maintain compliance with state and district policies, as well as ethical and professional standards.

Skills & Qualifications:

- Excellent communication, interpersonal, and organizational skills.
- Ability to develop and implement lesson plans tailored to student goals.
- Strong collaboration skills for working with teachers, staff, and families.
- Self-motivated and able to work independently within the school setting.
- Experience working with school-aged children, including those with diverse learning needs, is preferred.

Requirements:

- Associate's or Bachelor's degree in Communication Disorders, Speech-Language Pathology Assistant program.
- Current SLPA license (or eligibility for licensure) in the state of practice.
- Experience in a school or pediatric setting is a plus.
- Certification: Speech Language Pathology Assistants Certification (C-SLPA) from the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA).
- Desirable Attributes: Compassionate, patient-focused, and adaptable. Ability to work independently and as part of a team.

Working Hours:

We currently have multiple positions and opportunities available throughout the Treasure Valley and would love to connect with individuals who are passionate about making a difference.

Benefits:

We offer benefits such as health/dental insurance, retirement, paid time off and holiday pay.

Interested candidates are invited to submit their resume and a cover letter detailing their qualifications and experience to hello@bettertogetheridaho.com. Please include "SLPA" in the subject line.
