

PRN - PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Job Summary:

We are seeking a skilled and motivated PRN Physical Therapist (PT) to join our team on an as-needed basis. The successful candidate will provide high-quality physical therapy services to patients across a variety of settings. This position offers flexibility and the opportunity to work with a diverse patient population, helping individuals regain function and achieve their rehabilitation goals.

Key Responsibilities:

- Patient Assessment: Conduct thorough evaluations of patients' physical conditions, functional abilities, and therapy needs.
- Treatment Planning: Develop and implement personalized treatment plans aimed at improving strength, mobility, and overall physical function.
- Therapeutic Intervention: Provide hands-on physical therapy treatments, including exercises, manual therapy, and other modalities.
- Documentation: Maintain accurate and detailed records of patient evaluations, treatments, and progress.
- Education: Educate patients and their families on home exercises, safety, and strategies to manage and improve their physical health.
- Collaboration: Work closely with a multidisciplinary team
- Professional Development: Stay current with best practices, industry standards, and advancements in physical therapy.

Qualifications:

- Education: Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) from an accredited program.
- Licensure: Valid state license or eligibility for licensure as a Physical Therapist.
- Certification: Basic Life Support (BLS) certification preferred.
- Experience: Candidates with 1-2 years experience preferred
- Skills: Strong clinical and assessment skills, excellent communication, and interpersonal skills. Ability to work independently and adapt to varying patient needs.
- Desirable Attributes: Compassionate, patient-centered, and team-oriented with a proactive approach to problem-solving.

Working Hours:

This position is PRN (pro re nata, or "as needed")

Interested candidates are invited to submit their resume and a cover letter detailing their qualifications and experience to hello@bettertogetheridaho.com. Please include "PT" in the subject line.